IL 25TH DISTRICT NEWSLETTER

JULY 29, 2021

Hello friends & neighbors,
I can't believe August will be here in a few short days. In just a few short weeks students will be returning to school and before we know it the leaves will turn brown and fall off trees again! But let's not get ahead of ourselves, we've still got some sunny days left in the year.

Oswego National Night Out

Oswego will host its National Night Out on August 3rd at Prairie Park (4120 Plainfield Road) from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. as a push to strengthen police and community relations. There will be frozen treats and games! Register here.

Movies in the Park - Geneva

Geneva will host its free event, Movies in the Park on August 5th at 8:30 p.m. at Moore Park! They will be showing the film The Wizard Oz.

IDNR Accepting Applications

The Illinois Department of Natural Resources (IDNR) is now accepting applications for the Open Land Acquisition and Development (OSLAD) grant program. This program provides funding to local government agencies for development. It's a matching program that provides an advances payment that is 50 percent of the grant shortly after the agreement is executed. Applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. Sept. 1st. Inquire here.
